

Hello, allow us to introduce ourselves . . .

We are your friends and neighbors at the Breath of Life Seventh-day Adventist Church—BOL, for short! You may not know much about Adventists, but we are a multicultural Christian family of believers who enjoy serving God through worship and by serving our community. We recently settled into our new home in Inglewood, and we're thrilled to be here! We're wasting no time getting to know our neighbors and finding out what the community needs so we can better serve you!

BOL offers something for everyone. In addition to opportunities for worship, prayer and instruction, we offer a number of community services:

- A food and clothing bank for families in need.
- A full-service youth program that helps kids of all ages discover and develop their talents. That covers everything from artistic and athletic talent to academic achievement. Through creative, supervised activities in a safe environment, our kids thrive mentally, physically and spiritually.

In addition, we offer everyone a wide range of special ministries that promote healthier lifestyles and stronger families.

We invite you to “experience BOL” by joining us in worship on Sabbath (Saturday) or during our midweek Power Hour on Wednesday evening. You'll experience a warm, friendly atmosphere, and you'll find our worship style inviting, spiritually refreshing, and uplifting. Our music is legendary for its rich diversity and unsurpassed excellence.

As the scripture says, “O taste and see that the Lord is good!” Come dine with us at the Lord's table! ☞

About Pastor Mac . . .

Elder D.L. McPhaul has been the senior pastor at BOL since 2005. He is a family man and a powerful preacher of the Word. “Pastor Mac” has actually enjoyed two careers—one in the broadcast/entertainment industry, and the other in the gospel ministry. His many years in pastoral ministry have been very fruitful—bringing the message of hope and salvation to thousands of souls across the globe. Pastor Mac is very excited about partnering with local organizations and the city leadership to help enhance the quality of life overall for residents in the Inglewood area. ☞ more about us!

The Breath of Life (BOL) Church is a member of the global family of Seventh-day Adventists. BOL is a multicultural congregation, consisting of approximately 300 members from all walks of life and backgrounds. Most members live in the greater Inglewood area—within a five-mile radius of LAX.

Since our inception in 1982, our members have been committed to the mission of the church: to proclaim the gospel of salvation and a soon-returning Savior, and to serve our community with the resources and talents with which God has richly blessed us. We carry out that mission through various ministries, including personal and public evangelism and a wide range of health and community services.

As our name indicates, we observe the seventh-day Sabbath (Saturday) as the day that God Himself blessed, set aside, and observed as His holy day of rest and worship. What drives us as a people, though, is our passion to serve God fully in every aspect of life and to live to His glory. ✞

... and more about Adventists

Founded in 1863, the Seventh-day Adventist Church is a protestant denomination that has a global presence in some 200 countries. Headquartered in Washington, D.C., the SDA Church is one of the fastest-growing Christian movements, with a worldwide, multicultural membership exceeding 16 million people. The church operates a robust medical work (some 170 hospitals) and one of the world's largest Christian educational systems, including over 7,000 elementary, secondary, and collegiate institutions.

The church's mission is to proclaim to all people the everlasting gospel in the context of the Three Angels' Messages of Revelation 14:6-12. ✞
